

Our Story

Every home has a story. We simply help you tell yours.

Some homes make you pause the moment you walk in.

Not because they're the biggest or the most expensive—but because every corner feels intentional. A vase placed just right. A clock that quietly becomes the heart of the room. A candle holder that catches the evening light. The smallest details often leave the biggest impression.

That belief is what inspired Decoristta.

We created Decoristta for people who believe a home is more than four walls. It's where laughter echoes through hallways, celebrations become memories, quiet mornings begin, and ordinary moments become unforgettable.

To us, home décor isn't about filling empty spaces.

It's about creating a feeling.

Every piece we curate is chosen with purpose—balancing timeless elegance, modern design, exceptional craftsmanship, and everyday functionality. We spend countless hours selecting products that don't just look beautiful, but feel like they belong in homes where stories are constantly unfolding.

Whether it's a statement clock that transforms a blank wall, a sculptural showpiece that sparks conversation, or a carefully crafted vase that brightens a forgotten corner, every Decoristta piece is meant to become a part of your everyday life.

We believe luxury isn't measured by excess.

Luxury lives in thoughtful details.

It lives in the warmth of a beautifully styled home.

In the comfort of spaces that reflect your personality.

In the joy of walking into a room that truly feels like yours.

Our vision is simple—to make beautifully curated, premium home décor accessible to those who appreciate timeless design and meaningful living.

At Decoristta, we don't just sell home décor.

We help you create spaces you'll love coming home to.

Because every beautiful home begins with a story.

And we'd be honoured to become a small part of yours.

Welcome to Decoristta.

Our Founders' Story

A decade of friendship. One shared dream.

Some businesses begin with market research.

Ours began with conversations.

Long before Decoristta existed, there were simply two friends who shared a love for beautiful homes, thoughtful interiors, and the little details that make a space feel warm, welcoming, and personal.

For more than ten years, our friendship has been built on countless conversations over coffee, endless ideas, shared dreams, and a mutual appreciation for timeless design. We found ourselves constantly exchanging inspiration, discovering unique décor pieces, imagining beautifully styled homes, and dreaming about creating something meaningful together.

Slowly, that dream became impossible to ignore.

We noticed that while beautiful home décor existed, finding thoughtfully curated pieces that combined elegance, quality, and affordability wasn't always easy. We wanted to build a brand that made premium décor feel approachable—where every product was chosen with intention rather than simply added to a catalogue.

And so, Decoristta was born.

As founders, we each bring different strengths to the table, but we share one common vision: to create collections that inspire beautiful living.

Every product you see has been carefully selected as if it were going into our own homes. If it doesn't meet our standards for quality, craftsmanship, design, and timeless appeal, it doesn't become a part of Decoristta.

Our journey is still in its early chapters, and every order, every message, every customer who chooses Decoristta becomes a part of our story.

More than anything, we hope that the pieces we curate become part of yours.

Years from now, we hope you'll look at a clock on your wall, a vase on your console, or a candle holder glowing on a quiet evening and remember not just where you bought it—but the memories created around it.

That is the home we dream of helping you build.

Thank you for believing in us.

Thank you for supporting a dream built on friendship, trust, and a shared love for beautiful homes.

Welcome to the Decoristta family.
